4. No person shall ring any bell or sound any gong or blow any horn or trumpet or use any other musical or noisy instrument or wantonly and continuously sing on the Promenades to the annoyance of any person using the Promenades.

Selling and Hawking.

5. Where any part of the Promenades has, by notices affixed in conspicuous positions on the Promenades, been set apart by the Council for the sale and hawking of such articles, commodities, or things, or classes thereof, as may be specified in the notices, no person shall offer for sale or hawk the same on any other part of the Promenades.

Beating Carpets, etc.

6. No person shall on the Promenades, to the annoyance or obstruction of any person using the Promenades, beat, shake, sweep, brush or cleanse any carpet, drugget, rug or mat, or any other fabric retaining dust or dirt.

Disorderly Behaviour.

7. No person shall make any violent outcry, noise or disturbance on the Promenades so as to disturb the peace.

Deposit of Materials, etc.

8. No person shall deposit any seaweed, stones, boulders, flints, marl, gravel, sand, soil, or material of any description on the Promenades, or the seats or shelters thereon (unless the same is to be used in the repair thereof or for the repair of any works for the protection of the Promenades or Foreshore).

Dogs Barking.

9. No person shall on the Promenades after being required to desist by any Constable or by any Officer of the Corporation incite any dog to bark to the annoyance of any person using the Promenades.

Throwing Missiles.

10. No person shall on the Promenades wantonly discharge any firearm or throw or discharge any stone or other missile to the damage or danger of any person using the Promenades.

Bonfires.

11. No person shall make any Bonfire on the Promenades to the danger of persons using the Promenades.

Use of Conveniences, etc.

12. No male person above the age of eight years shall on the Promenades intrude on or use any place set apart for the use of females and no female person shall intrude on or use any place set apart for the use of male persons on the Promenades, and which are indicated by adequate notices at or near to such places.

Damage to Flower Beds, etc.

13. No person other than a person employed by or on behalf of the Corporation shall cut, uproot, or damage any tree, shrub or plant on the Promenades, or walk, run over or stand upon any flower bed, shrub, underwood, fern, or plant, or any ground which is prepared for their reception or growth.

Damage to Property.

14. No person shall wilfully mark, soil or deface any wall, fence, building, barrier, railing, seat, notice board or other structure or erection belonging to the Corporation or the Commissioners on the Promenades.

Litter.

15. No person shall place or deposit and leave on the Promenades any glass, china, earthenware, tin, carton, paper, or other refuse or litter so as to affect or tend to affect injuriously the public amenities of the Promenades.

Bill-posting.

16. No person other than a person employed by or on behalf of the Corporation or the Commissioners shall affix or post any bill placard or notice to or upon any wall, fence, building, barrier, railing, fixed or movable seat, notice board, or any other structure or erection belonging to the Corporation or the Commissioners respectively on the Promenades.

Performances, etc.

17. Where any part of the Promenades has, by notices affixed in conspicuous positions on the Promenades, been set apart by the Council for the delivery of such lectures, sermons, speeches, or performances of music, or for the holding of such entertainments as may be indicated in the notices :—

- (i) no person shall deliver any lecture, sermon, or speech, or perform any music, or hold any entertainment so indicated, as the case may be, on any other part of the Promenades;
- (ii) no person shall use or attempt to use any such part in such manner as to interfere with or hinder any person already using it for any purpose for which it has been set apart.
